CONFERENCE THEME

The developments in the global markets might have impacts for a rising economy like India. The Indian economy is at the junction. Most important decisions including demonetisation, rationalisation of taxes, addressing the spherical NPAs of the banking sector and the momentum given to agriculture sector and rural development together with positive terms for MSMEs and infrastructural development might have extensive inferences in terms of growth and recovery. Whether or not the economy is likely to develop along with the global markets lies in the successful performance of the policies turned out for overall growth. In spite of all odds, the country remains the epicentre for all the investment activities.

Surendranath Evening College takes pleasure in announcing the 1st International Conference on February 27 & 28th, 2020 on the theme “Emerging Issues in Finance and Banking”.
